

Practical-7: Execute DDL Trigger

1. Create a DDL Trigger for CREATE event and display message of successful event. (A)
2. Create a DDL Trigger for ALTER event and display message of successful event. (A)
3. Create a DDL Trigger for DROP event and display message of successful event. (A)
4. Create a DDL Trigger for All three events using log table. (B)

Practical-8: Execute DML Trigger

1. Create a DML After/For Trigger for INSERT event and display the message of the successful event. (A)
2. Create a DML After/For Trigger for the UPDATE event and display a message of the successful event. (A)
3. Create a DML After/For Trigger for the DELETE event and display the message of the successful event. (A)
4. Create a DML After/For Trigger for All three-event using log table. (B)